MOTION RE: THE PLANNING COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS APPROVAL TO DISPLAY “IN GOD WE TRUST” ON THE COURTHOUSE

Commissioner Jonathan Williams moved and Commissioner Kim Bradford seconded the motion to approve to display “In God We Trust” on the Courthouse.

(SEE ATTACHED)
WASHINGTON, D.C., July 28, 2010 (LifeSiteNews.com) — In a 3-0 decision, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in Washington, DC, ruled that the National Motto, "In God We Trust," is constitutional and does not violate the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment.

Quoting the 1970 decision in Aronow v. United States, the Court wrote: "It is quite obvious that the national motto and slogan on coinage and currency 'In God We Trust' has nothing whatsoever to do with the establishment of religion."

Judges David B. Sentelle, Karen L. Henderson, and David S. Tatel cited four cases in their succinct ruling. In each case, "In God We Trust" has been upheld against constitutional challenges. One of the precedents cited by the Court of Appeals comes from the 1996 opinion in Gaylor v. United States, which states: "[T]he statutes establishing 'In God We Trust' as our national motto and providing for its reproduction on United States currency do not violate the Establishment Clause."

The case began when an atheist from Texas, Carlos Kidd, filed suit in the Federal District Court in the District of Columbia. The District Court wrote: "Courts have consistently held that the phrase 'In God We Trust' does not violate the Establishment Clause." Kidd then appealed and lost again.

"In God We Trust" became the National Motto in 1956. Passed during the Cold War, the Congressional Record states: "In these days when imperialistic and materialistic Communism seeks to attack and destroy freedom, it is proper [to] remind all of us of this self-evident truth [that] as long as this country trusts in God, it will prevail." The phrase appears in the final stanza of The Star-Spangled Banner ("And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust'"). Written in 1814 by Francis Scott Key, the first stanza of which later became the National Anthem. A law in 1865 allowed the motto to be used on coinage. In 1908 most coins were required to carry the motto. The penny and nickel were later included in 1938, and from that time to the present all coins have been required to carry the motto. "In God We Trust" is the National Motto and the State Motto for Florida.

"The National Motto, 'In God We Trust,' is obviously constitutional," commented Mathew Slaver, Founder of Liberty Counsel and Dean of Liberty University School of Law. "The First Amendment was never meant to erase from history references to God or public acknowledgments of God."

Public representations of God or Christianity in the U.S. has met with opposition on several fronts in High court won't hear atheist's challenge to 'In God We Trust'

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court won't hear an atheist's latest challenge to the U.S. government's references to God.

The Court today refused to hear an appeal from Michael Newdow, who says government references to God violate the First Amendment's separation of church and state and infringe on his religious beliefs.

This appeal dealt with the inscription of the national motto "In God We Trust" on U.S. coins and currency. The 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco ruled in March 2010 that the phrase is ceremonial and patriotic and "has nothing whatsoever to do with the establishment of religion."

The high court refused to hear Newdow's appeal of that decision.

"In God We Trust" was first put on U.S. coins in the 1860s and on paper currency in the 1950s.

The case is Newdow v. LeFevre, 10-893.
House orders 'In God We Trust' added to Capitol visitor's center

Posted By Associated Press On July 12, 2009 @ 12:00 am In Speech | No Comments

WASHINGTON — The national motto, "In God We Trust," will be engraved in the Capitol Visitor Center, a move that comes in response to critics who said Congress spent $621 million on the new facility without paying due respect to the nation's religious heritage.

The House voted 410-8 July 9 to approve H.Con. Res. 131, which directs the Architect of the Capitol to engrave "In God We Trust" and the Pledge of Allegiance in prominent places in the three-story underground center that is the entrance for the thousands of tourists who visit the Capitol every day. The Senate approved an identical resolution (S.Amdt. 1370) as part of a spending bill earlier last week.

Rep. Dan Lungren, R-Calif., sponsor of the measure, said the importance of religion went back to the Declaration of Independence, which states that all men "are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights," and that the national motto "sums that up very well."

Sen. Jim DeMint, R-S.C., threatened to hold up the opening of the visitor center last December, saying that its displays failed to honor the country's religious background and gave the impression that the federal government was the answer to all of society's problems.

"In God We Trust" became the official national motto in 1956. The Congressional Budget Office estimated the cost of the engravings at less than $100,000.
MODERN CHALLENGES TO THE MOTTO'S USE

Since 1955, all the United States coins and currency have carried the motto "In God We Trust." Not until 1970 and 1978 were the laws authorizing its use legally challenged. Responding to atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair's charge, the court rejected her argument that the phrase, "In God We Trust," violated the First Amendment. The court cited remarks about the motto made by Justice William Brennan in his concurring opinion in Abington v. Schempp, (the case which struck down school Bible reading) stating:

It is not that the use of these four words (In God We Trust) can be dismissed as 'de minimis'...
The truth is that we have simply interwoven the motto so deeply into the fabric of our civil policy that its present use may well not present that type of involvement which the First Amendment prohibits."

The United States Supreme Court refused to hear her appeal.

CONCLUSION

Public recognition of God and the use of our motto "In God We Trust" on our coins and currency have a long, well founded place in America's heritage. The Supreme Court recognized this heritage when Justice William O. Douglas stated, "We are a religious people whose institutions presuppose a Supreme Being."

As we enter our third century as a nation we must not forget the legacy of dependence upon God as reflected in our national motto "In God We Trust." Only by remembering this legacy can we say with Abraham Lincoln "...that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

(SEE ATTACHED)
RESOLUTION ADOPTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF FEDERALLY TAX-EXEMPT DEBT OBLIGATIONS

WHEREAS, Putnam County, Tennessee (the "County") issues federally tax-exempt debt obligations from time to time, and wishes to adopt policies and procedures to ensure compliance with applicable federal rules and regulations related thereto;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the County that the federal tax compliance policies and procedures attached hereto as Exhibit A are hereby adopted and approved.

 Adopted and approved this 15TH day of OCTOBER, 2012

ATTEST:

COUNTY CLERK

PUTNAM COUNTY, TENNESSEE

County Executive

30
EXHIBIT A

PUTNAM COUNTY, TENNESSEE
Federal Tax Compliance Policies and Procedures

Purpose

In order to issue tax-exempt debt obligations ("Tax-Exempt Obligations"), the interest on which is excluded from gross income of the holders of such debt obligations, Putnam County, Tennessee (the "County") must comply with federal tax rules regarding expenditure of proceeds, use of financed property, investment of proceeds in compliance with arbitrage rules, retention of records and filings with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 148 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). This Tax Compliance Policy sets forth the County's policies for compliance with Sections 141-150 of the Code and related rules and regulations.

I. Expenditure of Proceeds

Expenditure of proceeds as set forth below will be reviewed and managed by the County Executive (the "County Executive") as needed to ensure compliance with the requirements with each tax certificate executed in connection with Tax-Exempt Obligations. In connection with such review and management, the County Executive will undertake the following with respect to the expenditure of proceeds of Tax-Exempt Obligations:

- Establish forms and procedures for documenting expenditures of the proceeds, including for new money issues a description of the property financed with each expenditure and for refunding issues a description of the refunded obligations and the property financed with the refunded obligations.

- Only permit proceeds to be expended for capital expenditures, working capital if accompanied by an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel, refunding of Tax-Exempt Obligations and other debt obligations used for the foregoing purposes, and costs of issuance of Tax-Exempt Obligations.

- Not permit amounts to be expended to pay capitalized interest on Tax-Exempt Obligations except during the actual construction period of financed property unless accompanied by an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel.

- Restrict reimbursement of costs that were paid prior to the issuance of the Tax-Exempt Obligations to costs paid subsequent to, or not more than 60 days prior to, the date a "declaration of intent" to reimburse the costs was adopted by the County or as is otherwise approved by bond counsel.

- Prepare a "final allocation" of proceeds to uses, which will be made and retained with the records of the Tax-Exempt Obligations, not later than 18 months after the placed-in-service date of the financed property (and in any event not later than 5 years and 60 days after the issuance of the issue).

- Monitor the expenditure of proceeds of new-money Tax-Exempt Obligations against the tax certificate expectation to (i) spend or commit 5% of net sale proceeds within 6 months, (ii) spend 85% of net sale proceeds within 3 years, and (iii) proceed with due diligence to complete the project and fully spend the net sale proceeds.

- Monitor the expenditure of proceeds of the Tax-Exempt Obligations against the schedule for any arbitrage rebate exception or exceptions identified in the tax certificate related to such issue of Tax-Exempt Obligations.

II. Use of Property Financed with Tax-Exempt Obligations

Use of property financed with Tax-Exempt Obligations, when completed and placed in service, will be reviewed by the County Executive on at least an annual basis.

The County will not do any of the following with respect to the financed property without prior discussion with bond counsel regarding potential effect of such action on the tax exemption of the Tax-Exempt Obligations that financed or refinanced such property:

- Enter into a management, service or incentive payment contract with any non-governmental person or entity (including the federal government) (a “Non-Governmental Person”).

- Enter into a lease with any Non-Governmental Person.

- Sell or otherwise transfer such property to any Non-Governmental Person.

- Grant special legal entitlements with respect to such property to any Non-Governmental Person.

If any action occurs, notwithstanding the foregoing, that causes Tax-Exempt Obligations to become private activity bonds as a result of private use of financed projects and/or private payments for parties utilizing financed projects, the County will promptly consult with bond counsel as to the steps to be taken in order to remediate such change in use in accordance with the regulations under the Code, including the remediation of nonqualified bonds.

III. Investment of Proceeds

Investment of proceeds of Tax-Exempt Obligations in compliance with the arbitrage bond rules and rebate of arbitrage will be supervised by the County Executive.
All proceeds of each Tax-Exempt Obligation will be deposited and maintained in a separate account or accounts. The investment of the proceeds of Tax-Exempt Obligations shall comply with the following:

- Investments will be purchased only in market transactions at fair market value.

- Calculations of rebate liability will be performed periodically as set forth in the tax certificate by outside consultants unless the County is eligible for an exception to rebate liability with respect to the Tax-Exempt Obligations.

- Rebate payments, if required, will be made with Form 8038-T no later than 60 days after (a) each fifth anniversary of the date of issuance and (b) the final retirement of the Tax-Exempt Obligations. Compliance with rebate requirements will be reported to the bond trustee, if any, and the issuer.

- The County will identify the date for first rebate payment at the time of issuance if rebate payments are expected.

IV. Records

Management and retention of records related to Tax-Exempt Obligations will be supervised by the County Executive.

- Records will be retained for the life of the Tax-Exempt Obligations plus any refunding bonds plus three years. Records may be in the form of documents or electronic copies of documents, appropriately indexed to specific bond issues and compliance functions.

- Retainable records pertaining to issuance of Tax-Exempt Obligations include the transcript of documents executed in connection with the issuance of the Tax-Exempt Obligations and any amendments, and copies of rebate calculations and records of payments including Form 8038-T.

- Retainable records pertaining to expenditures of proceeds of Tax-Exempt Obligations include requisitions, trustee statements (if any) and final allocation of proceeds.

- Retainable records pertaining to use of property include all agreements reviewed for nonexempt use and any reviewed documents relating to unrelated business activity.

- Retainable records pertaining to investments include GIC and hedge documents under the Treasury regulations, records of purchase and sale of other investments, and records of investment activity sufficient to permit calculation of arbitrage rebate or demonstration that no rebate is due.
V. Miscellaneous Post-Issuance Changes

The County Executive will consult with bond counsel prior to engaging in any post-issuance credit enhancement transactions (e.g., letter of credit or bond insurance) or hedging transactions (e.g., interest rate swaps)

The County Executive will consult with bond counsel prior to the making of any significant modifications to the bond documents that might cause a “reissuance” of the Tax-Exempt Obligations as described in Section 1.1001-3 of the Treasury regulations such as (i) changes in the yield of a Tax-Exempt Obligation, (ii) changes in the timing of payments on a Tax-Exempt Obligation or (iii) changes in the obligor of or security for a Tax-Exempt Obligation.

VI. Overall Responsibility

Overall administration and coordination of this policy is the responsibility of the County Executive. The County Executive shall be responsible for identifying any violations of federal tax requirements relating to any Tax-Exempt Obligations and shall consult with bond counsel as to best method for the timely correction of any identified violations either through available remedial actions or through the IRS’s Voluntary Closing Agreement Program. The County Executive shall be responsible for obtaining and providing for the training and education necessary to administer these policies and procedures.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH: NONE

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH: JEFFREY BOWMAN

(SEE ATTACHED)
Jeffrey is a student at Avery Trace Middle School. He and his friend, Cookeville automobile dealer and real estate agent Bob Johnson, went deer hunting last year not long after Jeffrey’s father passed away.

They were taking their places in the deer stand, and not realizing that a limb support was not properly in place, Mr. Johnson fell out of the stand onto the ground and was hurt severely.

Jeffrey had never had any formal first aid instruction but had been certified in CPR. Jeffrey immediately contacted 911 and got paramedics on the way. Awaiting their arrival, Jeffrey applied towels to his bleeding and said “I just stayed calm and did what my mom had told me to do in case I ever needed to use some first aid tips that she had taught me.”

Mr. Johnson said he was thankful to God for the great outcome and for his guardian angel that day, Jeffrey.

lance got there.”

Jeffry has never had formal first aid instruction and only a few days ago was certified to do CPR. He attributes his quick thinking to some first aid tips his mom taught him.

“I just stayed calm and did what she’d told me to do,”
he said.

Once they arrived, the paramedics began treating Bob.
He was airlifted to the trauma center at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

Bob is still a little sore but with good reason. In the accident, he suffered broken ribs, a broken collar bone and two broken vertebrae.

“If Jeffry hadn’t been with me that day and acted as he did, I know that this would have been a different outcome,” Bob said. “I thank God for the great outcome and I thank God for my 12-year-old guardian angel.”

Jeffry Bowman, left, and Bob Johnson share a laugh but earlier this month laughter was the last thing on the minds of either of the two. A frightening hunting accident, involving Johnson, made a hero out of Bowman.
